Comment: I believe this regulation may inadvertently be hurting businesses and enabling unqualified workers for positions they are not able to perform as highly as others simply based on the hiring procedure. If the hiring procedure is mainly focused on their gender, skin color, or disabilities, it creates somewhat of an unfair playing field for the employer, employee, and the business company as a whole being a bit controlled by these amendments. Promoting equality is what should be the main focus and amendments like this are somewhat disregarding of promoting an equal work environment. Forcing diversity is encouraging discontent.
