I'm so glad you are doing this. My lender forced coverage on me when my first insurance company canceled my policy because they wanted a roof inspection. My policy was $2,100 per year. The forced insurance was $6,000 per year. When I finally did replace the insurance, they still are refusing to prorate the $6,000 and they are forcing me to pay the entire year, even though I only had the policy for approximately 2 months.

Thanks,
