

From: David Shell <David.Shell@movementmortgage.com>
Sent: Tuesday, April 09, 2013 5:54 PM
To: #LPI Input
Subject: [CONTENT] Re: Forced Placed Insurance

In response to an article I read concerning "Forced placed insurance" please accept the following as my "public input", thank you.

Personally, this month I was called by my insurance agent and told that because I: A) Live in a manufactured home and B) live in Alabama, that my insurance would literally double this year. I have been having a problem finding Mfd Home Insurance so I call Citi, my mortgage servicer, they explained that it would likely be FOUR times what I am paying now and expect it only to pay off the balance and no contents. Does this type treatment need an explanation ? This is ludicrous and gouging. I have owned a home since 1987 – NEVER had a claim. Wow, another prick from the insurance and banking industry, didn't we just bail them out like $700 Billion for their antics. (Right before the millions and millions in bonuses in stock plans and such they gave themselves?)

"Movement Mortgage" is a registered trademark of the Movement Mortgage, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company. Please be aware that e-mail is NOT a secured communication vehicle, and that others may in certain circumstances be able to view its contents. As a result, while we are happy to provide this information by e-mail, we do NOT conduct actual business transactions by e-mail. Please contact the sender directly if you have any concerns about this message. All loans subject to credit approval and property appraisal. Equal Housing Lender. This communication is confidential and propriety business communication. It is intended solely for the use of the designated recipients(s). If this communication is received error, please contact the sender and delete this communication.