Re: Challenge to FHFA plan to charge higher guarantee fees in states with strong consumer protection laws

Dear Director:

In a joint letter, <http://ourfinancialsecurity.org/2012/11/afr-comment-letter-on-fhfa-guarantee-fees/>, yesterday organizations challenged FHFA plan to charge higher guarantee fees in states with strong consumer protection laws.

For the reasons set forth in their letter, I strongly urge you to withdraw this proposed rule that would unfairly penalize future borrowers, discourage borrower protections and dampen economic recovery within targeted states.

Hoping that the concerns expressed in their letter will receive the attention they deserve, I remain,

Yours sincerely,
Robert E. Rutkowski
