Re: Privacy Act of 1974; System of Records; Compensation Information Provided by the Regulated Entities (FHFA-4)

Dear Mr. Pollard:

The Federal Home Loan Bank of Topeka (“FHLBank Topeka”) appreciates the opportunity to comment on the notice of the establishment of new systems of records (“Systems of Records”) published by the Federal Housing Finance Agency (“FHFA”) in the Federal Register May 10, 2010, addressing the system of records for compensation information provided by the Regulated Entities (“FHFA-4”).

As currently drafted, FHFA-4 covers “present and former directors and executives of the Federal Home Loan Banks....” FHLBank Topeka requests that the FHFA define the term “executives” as the term “executive officer” will be defined by the FHFA in its forthcoming final rule on executive compensation. FHLBank Topeka believes a definition of the term “executives” will clarify the records that will be covered by FHFA-4 and will assist the Federal Home Loan Banks (“FHLBanks”) in understanding what records the FHFA may request from the FHLBanks for inclusion in FHFA-4.

We appreciate the opportunity to comment on the Systems of Records and thank you for your consideration of our comments.

Alfred M. Pollard, Esq., General Counsel, FHFA
