Hello,

The new second mortgage proposal from Freddie Mac is very exciting and I'd like to make some recommendations.

I am a homeowner and would be eager to use this product to access equity in my home and build an Accessory Dwelling Unit (ADU).

2908 Yearling st

Lakewood CA 90712

In my region, Los Angeles County ca, ADU construction and related fees often add up to $250,000 so I hope that the max loan value will be conducive.

There are many homeowners in my position who have equity in our homes but can't access it without refinancing our first position mortgages.

If you allow for high maximum loan values, this product will be very appealing and will help create more missing middle housing around the country.
